Language Requirement

Proficiency in the ability to read musicological literature in either French or German, or another language, chosen in consultation with the adviser and approved by the musicology faculty. This requirement must be fulfilled before the MA final examination can be taken, preferably during the first year of residency. This requirement can be met in one of the following ways:

- Successful completion of one semester of a graduate-level reading course approved by the musicology faculty.
- Two years of course work in the language with passing grades in the last ten years.
- Successful completion of a standardized exam administered by a language department or program, as approved by the musicology faculty.
- Written examination administered by the musicology faculty. The exam will consist of a short article in the designated language, which the student will summarize and from which he/she will translate a short excerpt.
