GUEST ARTIST RECITAL

YOUTUBE: LIVE ON STAGE!

Scott Sutherland, Tuba/Piano/Mixed-Media

Thursday, April 2, 2026, 7:30 p.m.
Recital Hall, Voxman Music Building

PROGRAM

This multimedia recital is where the worlds of live performance and popular media collide! Scott performs live while his YouTube videos are projected on the big screen, including selections from films, video games, and so much more. Even the audience gets involved, contributing music and sound effects during the performance through a unique mobile phone app. Come and experience a fusion of live music and digital media like you've never seen before!

SELECTIONS WILL BE ANNOUNCED FROM THE STAGE

“YouTube: Live on Stage!” utilizes a custom mobile phone app for some selections during the show.

Please download the “Scott Sutherland on Stage!” app for free from either the Apple App Store or Google Play Store.

Please silence cell phones during the pre-show and through the beginning of the concert until instructed to access the “Scott Sutherland on Stage!” mobile phone app and turn the cell phone volume up.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

SCOTT SUTHERLAND

A life-long resident of Southern California, Scott Sutherland has been hailed as “the second craziest tuba player I know” by famed American composer, Joan Tower. He is a member of the Redlands Symphony, Riverside Philharmonic and has been spotted in the back row of the Chicago Symphony, San Francisco Symphony, Los Angeles Philharmonic, San Diego Symphony and many more. Likely due to clerical errors, Scott has performed at the front of the stage as a soloist with the San Diego and Idyllwild Arts Symphony Orchestras, as well as the Riverside and Burbank Philharmonics. He has also recorded for film, television and video game soundtracks, including the major motion pictures Pearl Harbor, Batman vs. Superman, Aquaman and the Lost Kingdom, and Indiana Jones and the Dial of Destiny.

For 11 years, Scott was a founding member, tubist and pianist of the international touring ensemble, Presidio Brass. During his time with the quintet, he performed in over 40 states, Canada and China.

Scott can often be found behind his MacBook Pro, slaving away for hours on end adapting music. His arrangements have been performed by ensembles throughout the world, including the Principal Brass of the New York Philharmonic, famed tubist and conductor Roger Bobo, as well as chamber groups from the West Point Band and the "President's Own" Marine Band. Scott's "Fantasy on Porgy and Bess" for trumpet and orchestra was commissioned by soloist Barry Perkins and has been performed with the Pacific Symphony (California) and the Aguascalientes Symphony (Mexico).

He began the popular Scott Sutherland Music YouTube Channel in 2016 which includes multitrack videos of film, television and video game music, featuring Scott playing euphonium, tuba, cimbasso, piano and percussion. To date, the channel has been viewed over 3 million times and anyone reading this bio ought to stop reading, immediately subscribe to the channel and follow @scottsutherlandmusic on Instagram, Facebook and TikTok.

Beyond his performance career, Scott is a passionate and dedicated teacher. He is currently on the faculty at East Carolina University and formerly at the University of Redlands, California Baptist University and the Idyllwild Arts Academy.

Despite all of this, Scott's foremost identity, besides being an avid whiskey snob, comes as a husband and father to his beautiful family and he is grateful to come home to Carlsbad, CA where it never fails to be 70 degrees and sunny all year round.

Scott Sutherland is proud to be an Artist and Clinician for the Eastman Music Company.
